

IRWIR PAN

International seminar

“European Green Deal impact assessment on agriculture in Central and Eastern European Countries”

Bucharest, Romania

November 15, 2022

Based on bilateral scientific agreement between Romanian Academy-Institute of Agricultural Economics
&

Polish Academy of Sciences-The Institute of Rural and Agricultural Development

Together with

Venue: “Casa Academiei”, Romanian Academy-Institute of Agricultural Economics
Calea 13 Septembrie no.13, Floor 5, West wing, 050711, sector 5, Bucharest www.eadr.ro, iea@ines.ro, Tel: +40213182411, +40728026661,

AGENDA

13:00 – 13:20

Barbara Wieliczko

Green Deal - is the CAP evaluation system ready for it?

13:20 – 13:40

Adrianna Wojciechowska

What are the possible outcomes of the European Green Deal implementation in agriculture of Poland?

13:40 – 14:00

Piotr Fogel

Spatial management in rural areas in the face of the challenges of the European Green Deal

14:00 – 14:20

Michal Dudek

Polish CAP National Strategic Plan and the assumptions of the European Green Deal

14:20 – 14:40

Cecilia Alexandri, Corina Saman, Bianca Pauna, Lucian Luca

Possible effects of the European Green Deal on the output of field crop farms in Romania

14:40 – 15:00

Dan-Marius Voicilas

Perspectives for National Bioeconomy Strategy in Romania - BioeastsUp project

15:00 – 15:20

Monica Tudor

Long-term vision for European rural areas – a Romanian perspective (Sherpa project)

15:20 – 15:40

Camelia Gavrilescu

Development of efficient and resilient mixed farming and agroforestry systems with climate change mitigation and adaption potential - an overview of the MIXED project

15:40-16:00

Discussions and Conclusions